MHEIA Annual Conference Business Meeting Minutes
March 6, 2010
Holiday Inn Select, Columbia Missouri

Saturday, March 6, 2010

President Frank Powers called the meeting to order at 8:30 am. Frank Powers welcomed the attendees to the meeting. He stated that the auction started last night, March 5th. Frank thanked the Deputy Directors and Directors for their help through the year. We did have in excess of 90 registered for the Conference. New members are being added and we are slowly growing. Instructors can help by recruiting one Instructor each. Frank welcomed the special guest John Pemberton of KC Southern Lines – Operation Lifesaver Presenter, Mike Brooks and Mike Wydner of the Hunter Safety Systems. Frank mentioned that Mike Palazzolo and Tim Moore were approved as Deputy Directors.

The minutes of March 6th, 2009 were presented by Dennis Desmond, read and a motion to approve was made by Mike Palazzolo and seconded by Tim Moore. Motion Carried.

The Treasurers Report was presented by Don Harris. Don stated that we had an income of $19238 and had $13,794.54 left. Please see the attached report. There is a current balance of $10,212.27. A motion to approve the Treasurers Report was made by Terry Bryan and seconded by Mike Palazzolo. Motion Carried.

Old Business:

- A. Membership reported by Don Harris is at 216 and is up from last year. Don has membership brochures available and asks each member to recruit a member for the membership to double.
- B. Frank Powers reported that Tim Moore will do the News Letter. Tim ask that material was needed for the Regions and to let him know what is going on. You may send News Letter information to tmoores@ditmco.com. Everything from classes to hunts, fishing and more are needed. The newsletter will be published and sent out by March 25th.
- C. A report on the website was given by Dennis Desmond and that the site should be friendlier. Bill Michael at the Saline County Career Center is working on the site with one of his classes.
- D. Ron Valleroy gave a report on funding with a gun raffle with $15,140 being taken in as income from the Gun a Month program. Ron will give 125 tickets to each Director at this meeting for them to take back to their Region and sell. Tickets were purchased at this meeting making the total income $15,260. The drawing for the last three guns was held and the results were:
 1. Ticket # 91 sold by Tim Moore to Oscar Wade, 1443 Hwy TT, Bates City, MO 64011 won the Luger 45 Cal.
 2. Ticket # 345 sold by PD Mayer to Charles Weber, 1995 Antire Rd., High Ridge, MO 63099 won Browning BPS.
 3. Ticket # 922 sold by Gerald Dippold to Daniel Cook, 164 Quail Valley Rd., Jackson, MO 63755 won the Remington870 20 gauge.Ron said that the gun raffle worked well. The guns will be shipped to a gun dealer for pickup. Everyone who sells a winning ticket will receive $25. You can take one half of the value of the gun if you don't want the gun. MHEIA will have the gun raffle annually.
